Participation Statement

All activities have inherent hazards associated with them, and although taysideTREKKING takes due care to minimise the risk to clients, it is also important that each client appreciates that they have a responsibility to take all reasonable steps to eliminate or minimise the potential for an accident to arise. In addition, it is the duty of the client to dress and equip themselves appropriately and to inform the leader of any medical or health conditions, or any other situation that may arise during the activity. taysideTREKKING reserves the right to alter activities and locations for reasons of weather, safety or local access situations. taysideTREKKING endeavors to provide the accommodation advertised, however, reserves the right to change this accommodation to a similar standard should the need arise.

Insurance

Being a responsible provider, whilst we carry insurance to protect us against claims of negligence, we do not insure for personal accident, damage to property or loss of earnings due to cancellation. Clients are advised to make their own insurance arrangements in this instance.
